

(Please feel free to use and insert your student's name and you could change "college" in the first line to high school)

"A Poem for _____"
(Fill in name)

As you graduate from college, what will you be?
God's plan for you may be hidden from me,
But not hidden from Him, He has a plan,
Plans for good, and not evil, so take His hand,
And as you make your plans, consult with Him,
He will give you directions that will never grow dim.

So as you trust in the Lord with all your heart,
And from the words in His book, may you never depart.
And always remember in whatever you do,
There are those who love Jesus who love you, too.
So feel Jesus' love as His gifts they share,
He will meet your needs through those who care.

All good things come from above,
He has given his dear Son, so experience His love.
And rise up on wings of eagles, feel His strength,
You will run and not be weary if you stay on His wavelength.
So as you soar through life, feel His sunshine on your face,
With Jesus as your coach, you will win this race.

By Louise Hall